PHORNPHOP SITTIRUK

Phornphop Sittiruk (born 1986, Nakhon Si Thammarat) is a Thai conceptual artist who lives and works in Bangkok. He makes sculptures and installations that depend on craftsmanship, with a studio team helping to produce the work. He chooses objects and materials from daily life, starting from their original meanings and adding new ones, and his work draws closely on his own experience.

His work has been shown at VT Art Salon (Taipei), WTF Gallery, Bridge Art Space, Gallery VER and 1PROJECTS in Bangkok. His first solo show in Kuala Lumpur, with Numthong Gallery and A+ Works of Art, was in 2019. He took part in the Bangkok Art Biennale in 2018 and held an artist residency in Gwangju, South Korea. He holds a BFA from Silpakorn University, Bangkok.

At West Eden he presented new work in ANTHROPOCENE (2024), and shows the Falls Painting series in Forming Forces (2027).
